Bao-med® oil nourishes & helps heal damaged skin

Whether your skin is showing signs of aging, has been damaged by the sun or the use of harsh skin products, BAO-MED® oil can help, thanks to its many nourishing ingredients that have the ability to heal the skin from deep within, it's great for all skin types and will leave your skin perfectly smooth.

Rescue dry, dull hair

If your hair is dry and dull you can use BAO-MED® oil to revive it with this amazing hot oil treatment. Once the oil is hot, part your hair and then gently massage the oil into your scalp, working it down through the ends of your hair. Wrap a wet, hot towel around your head and leave it on until the towel has cooled. Wash and condition as normal. Apply it to the length of your hair to seal in moisture. Add a few drops of BAO-MED® oil to your usual conditioner to boost its effects and hydrate your hair.

Soothe an irritated, inflamed scalp

If your scalp is inflamed and irritated, you can apply BAO-MED® all over your scalp and leave it on for about 30 minutes.

A natural cleanser

Cleansing with BAO-MED® oil is an excellent method for getting clearer skin. Because oil dissolves oil, cleaning with a nutrient-rich oil like BAO-MED® won't leave your skin greasy. Gently massage it onto your face and neck and then rinse with water.

A daily moisturizer

BAO-MED® doesn't leave the skin with a greasy residue, it absorbs well and has a silky, smooth texture, it's great to use as your regular moisturizer too. It's ideal to use all over the body. It will sink deep within your skin to nourish the skin cells and promote gorgeous, healthy skin.

Eliminates under-eye bags

BAO-MED® oil can also be used to eliminate those unsightly under-eye bags that can be caused by late nights, stress and genetics. It also helps moisturize around the eyes to combat dryness. Use it twice daily as the last step in your usual facial skincare routine.

Helps Boosts collagen production

BAO-MED® oil is full of vitamin C, it's especially good for fighting signs of aging as it helps to stimulate collagen production in the skin while also promoting the restoration of mature skin. Apply 3 to 4 drops of BAO-MED® onto your skin just before bedtime for the best results.

Helps treat inflammatory skin and scalp conditions like eczema & psoriasis

BAO-MED® strong anti-inflammatory properties, it can help treat inflammatory skin conditions like eczema, psoriasis, and rosacea. It will help hydrate dry areas, reduce redness and help eliminate the intense itch that can occur with eczema.
